

UNITEDHEALTH GROUP
POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS POLICY
(August 16, 2022)

Overview

The Company's mission is to help people live healthier lives and help make the health system work better for everyone. To achieve our mission, the Company engages in efforts to help shape and inform public policy decisions that affect our customers, employees, shareholders, and the people we are privileged to serve across the health care community. On behalf of our shareholders and the communities and people we serve, the Company engages in public policy activities, including making bipartisan political contributions, to advance policy solutions that focus on achieving universal coverage, improving health care affordability, enhancing the health care experience, and achieving better health outcomes. The Company's Board of Directors has adopted this Political Contributions Policy to ensure that our approach to political contributions aligns with our mission and values. UnitedHealth Group typically does not make direct political contributions outside of the United States, and any decision to do so is evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

Federal Level

Federal election laws limit the Company's ability to provide monetary or in-kind contributions to federal candidates, political parties, political committees, or any other entity in a federal election. The Company expects all employees to comply with federal election laws. Political contributions to federal candidates, political parties, and political committees are, however, lawfully made by one or more bipartisan political action committees ("PACs") sponsored by the Company. The Company-sponsored PAC is voluntarily funded with personal contributions from eligible employees and individuals. Only those eligible to contribute are asked to consider supporting any Company-sponsored PAC.

State/Local Level and Other Political Organizations

Some state and local jurisdictions permit companies to contribute to state and local candidates, political parties, political committees, referenda and ballot initiatives. Political contributions at the state and local level may be made directly by the Company or by PACs in accordance with state election law. Any PAC established in a particular jurisdiction shall be funded in accordance with applicable state law. In addition, under certain circumstances, the Company or its PACs may contribute to other political organizations and make other political expenditures permitted by law. Generally, the Company contributes to those candidates or initiatives that are consistent with our long-term legislative and regulatory goals, or to those who represent the communities served by our Company.

Definitions

For purposes of this policy:

The "Company" includes UnitedHealth Group Incorporated and its majority-owned subsidiaries.

"Policy" means this Political Contributions Policy.

A “political contribution” is any gift, loan, advance or deposit of money or anything of value, made: (a) for the purpose of influencing any election for federal, country, state or local office or a ballot initiative; or (b) to pay debt incurred in connection with any such election or ballot initiative.

Scope

This Policy applies to political contributions made by the Company and its Political Action Committees.

Oversight

The Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors monitors compliance with this Policy. Management will report at least quarterly to the Committee regarding political contributions made by the Company and its PACs pursuant to this Policy, including the purpose and benefit of the political contributions.

Political contributions are managed by the Company’s External Affairs organization with oversight by UHG Executive Leadership and the Committee.

Policies and Procedures

All political contributions made by the Company must (1) comply with all applicable laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which the contributions are made (including the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act); and (2) adhere to this Policy and the UnitedHealth Group Code of Conduct: Our Principles of Ethics & Integrity. Any political contribution made by the Company must be approved in advance by a designated Senior Vice President of External Affairs and the Corporate Legal Department and in accordance with the Delegation of Authority policy. The Committee may, by resolution, establish an annual aggregate spending limit for political contributions made by the Company. Political contributions are made on a bipartisan basis and several factors are considered when contributing including:

- A candidate’s role in advancing health care policy priorities that impact the Company and the people we serve.
- A candidate’s representation of geographic areas with a significant Company presence.

Participation in the political process comes with the understanding we do not agree with recipients of political contributions on all issues.

All political contributions must reflect the Company’s interests and not those of its individual officers or directors. No contribution will be given in anticipation of, in recognition of, or in return for an official act.

The Company will not reimburse employees in any way for personal political contributions. Furthermore, the Company will not pressure or coerce employees to make personal political contributions and will not favor or disfavor employees who make or choose not to make personal political contributions.

Disclosure

To demonstrate transparency, the Company will publish a semi-annual disclosure report on its website, disclosing the following political contributions made in the United States:

- corporate contributions to state candidates;
- corporate contributions to state party committees;
- corporate contributions to state ballot initiatives;
- federal PAC contributions to candidates;
- federal PAC contributions to party committees;
- federal PAC contributions to leadership PACs;
- state PAC contributions to candidates;
- state PAC contributions to party committees; and
- state PAC contributions to leadership PACs.

The Company will request trade associations that received dues from the Company totaling $50,000 or more in a given year to report the portion of the Company's dues allocated to nondeductible political activities under Section 162(e)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code. The information received from these trade associations will be included in the full-year disclosure report published on the Company's website.

Prior to the publication of disclosure reports on the Company's website, the reports will be presented to the Committee for review.
